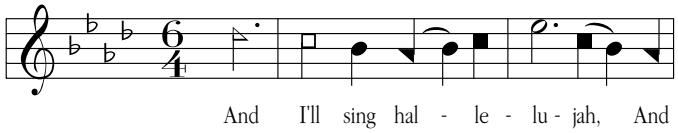
Shapenote Singing

21st Annual

Pacific NW Sacred Harp Convention — Washington



Everyone is welcome; no experience is necessary. We are gathering for two days to sing, but listeners are welcome, too. Shapenote music dates from American colonial times and is characterized by fervent a cappella singing of four-part dispersed harmony.

❖ February 18 & 19, 2012 ❖

Saturday & Sunday

9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Registration begins at 9 AM, and at 9:30 singing begins. Potluck dinner-on-the-ground follows at noon. A free-will offering will be collected.

We sing from The Sacred Harp (1991 Denson edition); loaner copies will be available both days. Books and recordings will be for sale. Children are welcome at the singing, but no childcare will be provided. For more information or driving directions, contact Karen Willard (360) 897-9545; karen@weelyrd.net. For housing information, contact Karen by e-mail, or call Susan Helf (206) 782-1836.

Go to our website: http://www.pnwshs.org and then click on "All-Day Singings". While there read over "What's Dinner on the ground?" and "What happens at an All-Day Singing?".
